

Acknowledgements

This body of work has been fed by all of my past collaborators/co-creators of the past twelve years. Many people have contributed to the learning and creation of the many layers of this thesis. In particular, I appreciate Nane` Jordan and Cathy Pulkinghorn, who witnessed and documented the beginning of this a/r/tographic journey. I am grateful to have received the gift of compassionate guidance, patience and humour from my research supervisor, Shauna Butterwick. My committee members Rita Irwin and Susan Stewart (Emily Carr Institute of Art & Design), have had the ability to offer constructive ideas to a messy artistic process. I have appreciated their challenges and encouragement along the journey. The women of the Centre for Cross Faculty Inquiry Women Writing Women Group, Luanne Armstrong, Danielle Arsenaault, Cindy Lou Griffith, Susan Hass, Karen Hawkins, Nane` Jordan, Jenny Peterson, Monique Richoux, Annie Smith, and Jeannie Stubbs, have been a source of inspiration and confidence in keeping the channel open for my creative writing process. I would like to thank my spiritual mentors Sage and Brigid for assisting entry into the world of trance, a place from which I have accessed limitless creative learning material. The creation of the video installation and documentation would not have been possible without the expertise and patient mentoring of video artist Cindy Lou Griffith. Choreographer and movement artist, Tannis Hugill, graciously contributed her performance direction, enhancing my experience of the performance ritual through her thoughtful and direct questioning of my purpose. To Monica Brammer and Leah Fisher, I am grateful for your patience in casting the molds of my body. My studio-mate, Mary Blaze, an ongoing artist ally, allowed me to expand my creative space by offering her studio space to me during the creation of the thesis art work. Lastly, I would like to acknowledge my life partner, R. Michael Fisher, who contributed his artistic expertise and technical skills to the art installation and performance ritual along with patient editorial assistance. I am grateful for the numerous conversations that assisted the unwinding of the many mysteries hidden within this project. His insights, theories and philosophizing have nourished, validated and challenged this thesis. I am eternally in awe of our spirit connection that has kept my heart, mind and body open to the depth and breadth of life-long learning through collaboration.

Dedication

I dedicate this thesis to my family of origin and to my co-created family,
Michael, Leah and Vanessa Fisher.

I offer this story to the Germanic Volvas of my ancestry whose visionary blood flows through my veins.
